

Work Breakdown Structure

- WBS is used to organize the team's work into manageable sections and to provide a structured vision of what has to be delivered.
- We need to Identify the main deliverables, break down deliverables into smaller components
- We used Top-down approach and Tabular form with PMI Numbering
- Let's discuss how WBS helps in project planning, cost estimation, resource allocation, and risk management.